

How to Do Payroll in North Carolina

Use this downloadable checklist to help you stay on track!

✓	TASK
	Step 1: Set up your business as an employer. To register your business for withholding and unemployment taxes in North Carolina, you must have a Federal Employee Identification Number (EIN). Although it's not required, we also encourage you to enroll in the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS), making it easy to pay your federal taxes online or over the phone. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> Applied for a Federal Employer Identification Number (EIN)<input type="checkbox"/> Enrolled for the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS)
	Step 2: Obtain a Withholding Identification Number from the North Carolina Department of Revenue. Each new employer paying wages in North Carolina must register for a Withholding Identification Number by filling out a Form NC-BR and submitting it to the North Carolina Department of Revenue. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> Registered for a Withholding Identification Number with the NC DOR
	Step 3: Register for Unemployment Tax with the North Carolina Division of Employment Security (DES). Your small business must register with the NC DES. Once registered, you'll be issued a North Carolina unemployment insurance number (Employer Tax Account Number) automatically. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> Registered with the NC DES
	Step 4. Set up your payroll process. You'll need to decide how often you're planning to pay employees, if you need to track work hours, which payroll forms you need to collect and when, how you'll perform payroll calculations, and so forth. To do this, you have three options (check off which option you're electing to use for tracking purposes): <ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> Do payroll yourself<input type="checkbox"/> Use Excel payroll templates
